THE GRAND PARADE YESTERDAY-Contributions to the Monument .- Continuing our notice of yesterday of the grand parade, we mention the review of the President and Secretary of War, This took place on the Avenue, in front of the President's House, and was a military scene not to be forgotten. The Commander-in-Chief appeared with the Secretary of War, accompanied by Jonah D. Hoover, Esq., United States Marshal, and performed his duty in a most soldier-like manner. After a salute, with the highest honors to the President and his compuny, the regiment marched to Union Square, were briefly drilled by Col. Hickey, and by order stacked their arms, and were dismissed for a colation. This was prepared in ample profusion of well cusined edibles, at Flint's Hotel, where the various companies partook of the feast with appetites sharpened by the morning's exercise. The line again formed, the regiment, now composed of ten companies, proceeded to the National Washington Monument Grounds. and, after a few evolutions, commenced their arrangements to contribute to the funds of the Monu-

THE CONTRIBUTIONS. The first on the list was Col. Hickey, who, with patriotic liberality which does him high honor, subscribed and deposited $100. The other patrioticontributors were as follows, as we quote from the hook: Lieut. Col. Reily, $5; Major Robert Keyworth, $5; Major Peter F. B. con, $5; Quartermaster James E. McCollum, $5; Surgeon James E. Morgan, $1; Assistant Surgeon James M. Grymes, $1; Capt. Joseph Peck, $5; National Grays, $5 29; Lieut. Eychorn, $1; President's Mounted Guards, $17 50; John Peter Freeman, 50 cents; National Guards, $36 50; Capt. Joan E. Bright, for the Boone Rifles, 38; Samuel Butt, W. L. I., 31; Surgeon S. C. Busey, 31, Lieut. C. W. Flint, down for a future cont. ibution; Washington German Yagers, $25; Capt. Edward C. Carrington, $5; J. D. Hoover, U. S. Marshal, $20; Richard Wallach, $20; C. Aigler, $1; Montgomery Guards, through Lieut. Feeney, $45; Charles Soran, "City item and military re-porter of the Washington Evening Star," $1-the whole amounting to $319 25. The companies not contributing were the Washington Light Infantry, the American Riflemen, and Scott Guards, who, however, are to make their deposits hereafter. This duty over, the regiment re-formed and marched to the city, where they were dismissed, having honored the day with the grandest military parade ever witnessed in Washington.

ADDRESSES ON THE PLAG PRESENTATION -The following are the beautiful and patriotic addresses delivered yesterday on presenting an American flag to the Scott Guards, by a lady whose name is signincant of good. In presenting the National emblem, Mrs. E. H. Pendleton said:

This national ensign, the glorious emblem of our confedera y, radiant with the memory of the past, and reflecting a starry pathway on the future-this flag of freedom it is my pleasing office to present to the Scott Guard of Washington.

I need not say to you, young gentlemen, that the duty you have imposed upon yourselves, is an hon-orable one, and that I feel confident that, at all times. and under all circumstances, it will be henorably discharged. The well earned renown of the great name you have assumed, cannot fail to be to you a spur to brave and honest deeds; and should your country ever need your services, I am sure you will so bear rourselves that each one of you will feel the important trust that stirs the heart of every patriot. our country's welfare is our first concern.

And who promotes that best, best proves his duty." Let this sentiment be ever present in your minds. and shape your every action in whatever situation you may be placed, and your deeds shall pluck the shining age from vulgar time, and give them whole to late posterity.

To this, Captain Baker A. Jamison responded as

Mrs. Pendleton: In receiving this flag from you as a generous offering to our corps, it is due to the occasion and the day to make a brief response to he very eloquent and patriotic presentation address. On all occasions when we behold our national flag floating proudly in the breeze, patriotic emotions arise spontaneously in our bosoms; but when, for the first time, an American corps is enailed to bear American co.ors, presented by an American lady, it is a scene calculated to make every American heart thrill with pleasure. On this day seventy-two years ago the good and glorious Washington struck the final blow for American liberty, and the shackles which bound us to British tyranny were severed. We should all be prepared to aid in perpetuating the invaluable liberties we have inherited. Desiring as we do to obtain efficiency in the military art, we have organized this company, and are determined to uphold it to the utmost of our ability. Dark clouds hung over the horizon of its hopes; but nursing it with a tender care, we are assured that ere long it will emerge into a strong and vigorous manhood. The respect and confidence which this occasion inspires will cement the bonds of friendship which now bind us together. We must remember that we are all children of a free and enlightened country that throws its mantle of protection over all its citizens wherever they may be. Our Constitu tion guarantees to its citizens, of whatever condition, the inestimable blessings of "Liberty, justice, and equality." What sacrifice should we not make in defence of such a country? Our duties, which have been so eloquently described, we fully appreciate, and are determined to perform. We happy to hear that you so cordially approve of the name we have adopted. It was not the effect of political opinion, but an humble offering of gratitude to the gallant veteran who has crowned his country with a glorious wreath of enduring renown. Amid all the convulsions of Europe the stars and stripes proudly float from the mastheads of our gallant ships, proclaiming to the oppressed of all nations that there is yet a land where the standard of liberty waving. That glorious banner, which has waved in triumph over so many battle fields, is sup ported by the valor of five millions of freemen, and I trust that no single star will be dimmed by any act of ours. But should we be scattered throughout this broad land, in the course of events, I am sure that whenever dangers threaten the permanency of our glorious insututions, the members of this corps will ever be found true to the Constitution, true to the Union, and true to the high and holy duties of American citizens. On behalf of the Scott Guard-I cheerfully receive this beautiful flag, tendered by one who is justly styled the vatroness of the corps; and in doing this, we beg leave to return you our sincere thanks for the honor you have conferred upon us. This day to us will long be remembered while the friend our youth will never be forgotten. We shall endeavor to be worthy of the confidence you have reposed in us, worthy the respect and esteem of our fellow-citizens, worthy the title of young Americans, and worthy of the illustrious chieftain whose name we bear.

BALL OF THE AMERICAN RIPLEMEN. + Carusi's Saloon, last evening, was brilliant with the grand ball of the American Riflemen, Cap ain John L. Smith commander. The hall was filled with the beauty of the city, and the military appeared in unusual numbers. The Marion Rifles, from Baltimore, were represented by Captain S. T. Harvey, First Lieutenant J. H Hamlin, and Second Lieutenant W. B. Gardner. The Continentals, President's Mounted Guard, Washington Light Infantry, Boone Rifles, National Greys, National Guards, Scott Guards, and other companies were represented in uniform. The Genevieve Quadrille and United Clubs were also represented. Among the ladies we might note many for distinguished beauty, but their initials were a scaled book, so we can only say that the two fair ones from Baltimore attracted much attention, and were among the best of dancers. Mior Decce. B., in white, was beautiful; the ladies in the follower in red, and one little charmer with a black he wet bodice, particufariy pleased the beaux. Prosperi's Band made excellent music for the occasion, Prof. Wagner having charge of the cotillon part, and the former also act ing as ballet master. The refreshments were liberally supplied by Mr. Albert Eckaralt. To the committee of arrangements much credit is due. We leit them "between the late and early," in the full tide of successful ball-room hilarity, and trust that they are none the worse of their pleasure to-day.

THE POOR, AND THEIR RELIEF .- The Ladies' Union Benevolent Association, whose efforts have heretofore been so successful in amelierating the sufferings of the poor of Washington during the bitter blasts of winter, are devising ways and means for the repienishment of their treasury, now totally exhausted. A correspondence has taken place between the ladies and the Philharmonic society and Union Choir Assocation, regarding the propriety of each association giving a concert, the proceeds to be placed in the hands of the Benevolent Society. The Philharmonic had the matter before them last evening, and they have responded affirmatively. The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Managers of the Union Choir takes place this evening, in the E street Baptist church, (their next rehearsal being set down for next Monday evening, at the same place,) when they also will consider the subject. We wish the movement abundant success, that the ladies may be furnished with the means for accomplishing their heaven born mission.

SERENADE - The youthful Scott Guards, in token of their esteem and gratitude for the liberal and handsome gift (yesterday) of a magnificent flag, presented to them by that excellent lady, Mrs. Pendletou, resolved to testify their appreciation the eof, by entertaining the magnificent donor with a serenade last night. Rapetti's excellent band was engaged for the occasion, and discoursed some exquisite pieces

WASHINGTON LIGHT INFANTRY .- This primitive and eminent company (Capt Carrington) after being dismissed yesterday, sat down to a munificent dinner, at the house of Charles Kloman, a member of the corps. After the cloth was removed, a backet of champagne was furnished by the liberal host, when the Captain rose and made a soul stirring and patrione speech in celebration of the day. This was follewed by others of a similar character, and the utmost barmony pervaded throughout.

CORONER's INQUEST .- An inquest was held at the watch house this morning, before Thomas Woodward, Esq., upon the body of a newly-born male infant. It appeared in evidence that the child was found lying in the vestibile of the passage of JoM. Carlisle, Esq., last night, rapped in white cotton, and from appearance having been born alive. The jury, with these facts elicited, rendered a verdict that the infant came to his death by foul means by the hands of some person unknown for the purpose

A LARGE AUDIENCE.—The circus tent was crowded last night, and the performances such as to make the audience desirous of repeating their visit. It is an excellent equestrian company, and therefore fully deserving of the public patronage. There is no "Barnum Humbug" here, but a rich display of gen-uine talent in the line, worthy of all praise. They perform at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and 71/2 in the evening, thus affording accommodations for families hy daylight, and the public at large at night. Saturday night they give their last performance. To lovers of the ring we need not say go-for go they

OYSTERS AS IS OYSTERS .- This morning Schwarte, at the corner of Eleventh and E streets, "laid upon our table" four dozen of as fine oysters as ever rejoiced the heart of a hungry man. They were oysters " as is oysters," and we doubt very much if a better article was ever offered in the Washington market. Schwartz receives a fresh supply daily, which he is prepared to furnish families on the most pleasing terms. -

DEATH FROM INJURY. - Andrew Lauxman, who recently had his hand crushed, by a threshing machine, at Mr. R. Butt's establishment, near the second tollgate on the plank road, died at the Infirmary, of lockjaw, and was buried on Wednesday by the German Benevolent Society, of which he was a

MAKE THE CORPORATION PAY FOR IT .- Mr. Wm. C. Sullivan, who resides at the corner of Sixth and Eleventh streets, in going home last evening, fell into the sewer in Sixth street and broke his leg. He has a fair action for damages against the Corpora tion. Two or three verdicts for damages will cure the habit of leaving such places as man-traps after

WATCH House .- Our city, for quiet and good order, will compare with that of any other in the Union. This is the third day, without our having had a single case to report. No stronger evidence can be given of the truth of the foregoing.

RATHER CURIOUS.—The Philadelphia Ledger remarks: "Some two or three hundred persons drowned by the sinking of a steamship sends a thrill of horror through a nation, and the lamentations are yet loud on account of the loss. Mere than twenty thousand human beings slaughtered in the Crimea causes all the bells in England and France to be set ringing for joy, and the organs in the churches peal forth strains of exultation over the CARRIED AWAY BY ENTHUSIASM .- So great was the feeling manifested on the arrival at Yonkers of Captain Luce, that it was with the greatest difficulty that the gallant Captain was enabled to reach his home. Some persons even carried their enthusiasm so far as to attempt to cut the buttons off his coat!

WASHINGTON LODGE, No. 2, I. O. O. F.,

Mr. B. Burnow-Dear Sir-In compliance with your request we inform you for the benefit of the public, that a brother of our Order, John R. Jasper, became sick while a brother of our Order, John R. Jasper, became sick while a stranger in this city, and in consequence of his destitute condition was sent to the Hospital, where he was found by a committee of this Lodge, suffering from a disease termed Scrofula or King's Evil, and in so low a state as to be pronounced by the physicians incurable. On recommendation of a brother he was induced to try your medicine, and in three weeks was declared cured and left the city for New York; and in our opinion his restoration to health was caused solely by the use of your specific. caused solely by the use of your specific.
